

UNITED NATIONS
INDONESIA

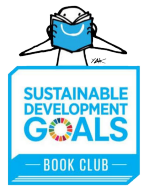

SDG

Book Club — Indonesia —

READING LIST

SHORT LIST

TEMAN BARU EPI Epi's New Friend

Author: Nila Tanzil

Illustrator: Nabila Adani

Publisher: Litara

Overview Epi wants to play with her new neighbour. Her name is Fatima and she is from Afghanistan. Even though they speak a different language, can the girls find something in common?

SDG/Theme Reducing Inequalities Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions

AKU SUKA CARAMU I Like Your Way

Author: Audelia Agustine

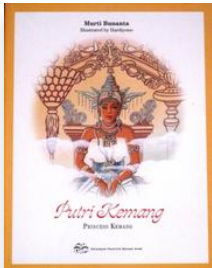

Illustrator: Haikal

Publisher: Litara

Overview Wuri and Rano have the same goal: they want to go to their friend Ali's birthday party. Wuri offers to guide Rano along the way. However, Rano was sure he knew the way there. Wuri could not help thinking: how could Rano know the way?

SDG/Theme Reduced Inequalities Sustainable Cities, Partnerships for the Goals

PUTRI KEMANG Princess Kemang

Author: Murti Bunanta

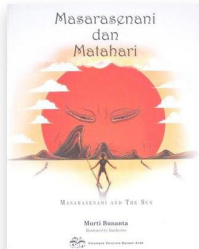

Illustrator: Hardiyono

Publisher: KPBA

Overview Princess Kemang is an independent princess, using bravery and strength to overcome challenges in her way. Follow her journey through this beautifully illustrated book, with text in both Bahasa Indonesia and English.

SDG/Theme Education, Gender Equality

MASARASENANI DAN MATAHARI Masarasenani and the Sun

Author: Murti Bunanta

Illustrator: Hardiyono

Publisher: KPBA

Overview This is the story of Masarasenani. Every day he and his family strive to make food, but when Masarasenani enacts a clever plan to lengthen their days, does he go too far?

SDG/Theme No Poverty, Zero Hunger, Climate Change, Partnerships for the Goals

LONG LIST/RECOMMENDED READING LIST

TERBANG

Publisher: Seumpama

Author and illustrator: Rassi Narika

Overview Ilo loves everything that can fly. Together with his friends, Ilo was looking for ways to fly. Will they succeed in finding a way to fly?

SDG/Theme Partnerships for the Goals

CAP GO MEH

Author: Sophie Dewayani

Illustrator: Eugenia Gina

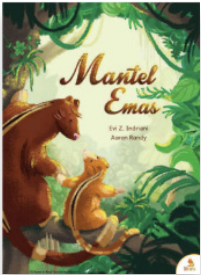

Publisher: Litara

Overview Nisa, and Lili debate over whether lontong cap go meh is the genuine icon of the Eid Al-Fitr tradition or Chinese New Year celebration. After sharing the excitement of experiencing each celebration, both end up discovering that this dish represents both celebrations.

SDG/Theme Partnerships for the Goals

MANTEL EMAS

Author: Evi Indriani

Illustrator: Aaron Randy

Publisher: Litara

Overview Little Golden Coat and his mother live in the forest of Papua amongst many other animals. Golden Coat sleeps in his mother's pouch just like a kangaroo. But one day, his mother tells him he can no longer sleep in her pouch. Golden Coat is upset- why can't he sleep in her pouch anymore?

SDG/Theme Climate Change, Life on Land

SRINTI

Author: Sofie Dewayani

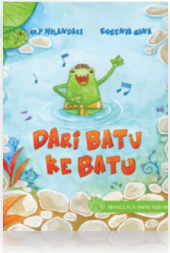

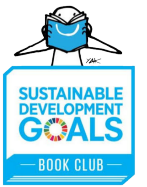

Illustrator: Cecillia Hidayat

Publisher: Litara

Overview The earthquake has taken everything; best friends, sisters, and other family members too. Or maybe not. They left something buried under the debris. Its name is Srinti. A nice story about a happy moment in a refugee camp.

SDG/Theme Sustainable Cities Climate Change

DARI BATU KE BATU From Stone to Stone

Author: Ary Nilandari

Illustrator: Eugenia Gina

Publisher: Litara

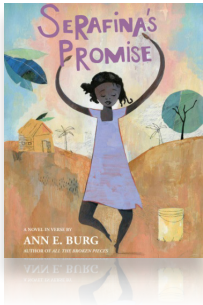

Overview Using rock river mining as inspiration for the story, and with scientific facts embedded in the story, it enables environmental issues to be discussed after reading. Frogs travel from rock to rock, trying to find a stable home as people have taken most of the rocks. In addition, they find that the river banks are beginning to slide inwards, teaching that in order for the practice of rock mining to continue, people must be more careful—a practice that applies to all our use of natural resources.

SDG/Theme Climate Action, Life Below Water, Life on Land

INTERNATIONAL TITLES

SERAFINA'S PROMISE

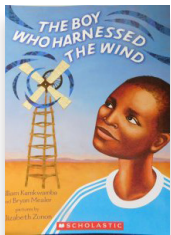

Author: Anne E. Burg

Publisher: Scholastic Press

Overview This tale of one girl's aspirations to be a doctor is a sad and unflinching depiction of poverty in Haiti but also an uplifting story about the power of love. Serafina both gives to and receives from her parents an understanding and fervent love. It's this nucleus of her family which supports her through all hardships.

SDG/Theme No Poverty, Gender Equality, Climate Change

THE BOY WHO HARNESSSED THE WIND

Author: William Kamkwamba and Bryan Mealer

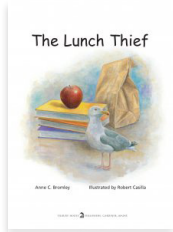

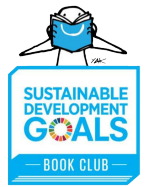

Illustrator: Elizabeth Zunon Publisher: Puffin Books

Overview This story about a boy growing up in poverty in Malawi is an inspirational story of strength.

Setting the scene in the first part of the book helps the reader to understand the environment William lived in. William had a curious mind growing up and the book illustrates how to be resourceful in his situation.

SDG/Theme No Poverty, Sustainable Cities, Affordable and Clean Energy

THE LUNCH THIEF

Author: Anne C. Bromley

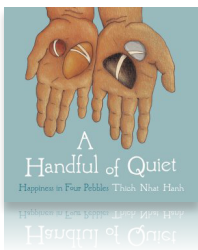

Illustrator: Robert Casilla

Publisher: Tilbury House Publishers

Overview A moving story about a boy who steals other pupils' lunches. One of his classmates, Rafael, notices this behavior but rather than just presuming Kevin guilty, he tries to understand why. In the process, Rafael realizes that Kevin's family lost their home to a wildfire and is living in a motel. It makes Rafael appreciate his lunch more and also realize that he could share his lunch with Kevin.

SDG/Theme Zero Hunger, Climate Change

A HANDFUL OF QUIET

Author: Thich Nhat Hanh

Illustrator: Wietske Vriezen

Publisher: Plum Blossom

Overview A beautifully illustrated and simply explained introduction to mindfulness for children, based on holding, drawing or focusing on everyday tangible objects such as pebbles, marbles or beans. Renowned Buddhist teacher Thich Nhat Hahn shares his creative, hands-on approach for children and families to help relieve stress, increase concentration and deal with difficult emotions.

SDG/Theme Good Health and Wellbeing

